

eServGlobal Limited (“eServGlobal” or the “Company”)

Management Changes

10 August 2015

eServGlobal (AIM:ESG & ASX:ESV), the provider of end-to-end mobile financial services to emerging markets, announces that Stephen Blundell is stepping down from his executive role as Chief Operating Officer, from September. He will however remain on the Board of the Company as a non-executive director.

eServGlobal is pleased to announce that Paolo Gagliardi has been appointed as Chief Operating Officer, with effect from September. Mr Gagliardi has been Chief Delivery Officer at eServGlobal since 2013. He has more than 20 years international experience in directing complex, multi-million euro, end-to-end projects in the ICT industry. He has a strong track record of delivering revenue growth and cost saving whilst delivering exemplary customer satisfaction. Mr Gagliardi was Regional Director of Technology for Vodafone and VP of Managed Services for Bharti Limited delivering Managed VAS solutions to Bharti Group mobile operators in emerging markets.

Executive Chairman, John Conoley, said “On behalf of the Board and the employees at eServGlobal, I would like to thank Stephen for his significant contribution over the last 6 years. Initially as CFO, and more recently as COO, he has been an integral part of transforming the Company in the mobile money market and also in development of the HomeSend Joint Venture.”

“I look forward to continuing to work with Stephen as a fellow Board member, but am also very pleased to announce that Paolo Gagliardi will lead the operational functions of eServGlobal in his new role as COO. Paolo is a seasoned professional with extensive experience in the telecommunications industry. Paolo and Stephen will continue to work closely together to ensure a smooth transition of the COO role.”
